

“Healthy Congregations Program” At Shalom Prayer Center at Mt. Angels

November 18 and 19, 2010

Continuing Education Opportunity for Pastors Limited Scholarships Available

The Transformation and Evangelism Teams of the Congregational Support Committee in cooperation with the Synod of the Pacific will host a Continuing Education opportunity for pastors Thursday & Friday, November 18 & 19 from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Shalom Prayer Center in Mt. Angel. The Rev. Dr. Robert Conover, Mission Presbyterian and Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of the Redwoods will be presenting the Healthy Congregations program. This is a great opportunity for Continuing Education without having to travel outside the Presbytery.

What is Healthy Congregations?

Healthy Congregations, Inc. is an ecumenical, educational program based on Peter Steinke's book "How Your Church family Works" and the Bowen Family Systems Theory. This time-tested approach to congregational life is based on learning ways to respond to conflict, anxiety and change. It emphasizes the development of relationship building rather than willful and power based decisions. Focused on the strengths of congregations, it will be possible to face the differences in those settings with grace and truthfulness.

How do I receive a scholarship?

The first 16 pastors to register and pay for their room and meals will receive Tuition Scholarships in the amount of $255 to cover the workshop and materials. Everyone will need to pay for their room and meals.

The cost for room and meals is $120 for those arriving Wednesday evening and will include breakfast Thursday morning.

The cost for room and meals for those arriving just prior to the beginning of the workshops on Thursday morning is $74. Your first meal will be lunch on Thursday.
