Youth Director Job Opening

First Presbyterian Church, nestled in the shadows of the Blue Mountains, is a congregation that places special value on its youth, community and world service. We are seeking a dynamic, self-motivated individual with strong people and organizational skills to help us encourage and lead our youth in their walk with Christ. In addition, this position requires a person with a desire to coordinate service opportunities for both our church and our community. Position is new and will be reviewed annually by the church executive committee.
